

POLICE OFFICER

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK

This is the first level of general police work in which the employee assists a more experienced officer in performing routine patrol duties necessary to support the police department's objectives of providing crime prevention, crime detection and offender apprehension, traffic regulation, and public assistance service to the citizens of Lake Charles. Employees in this position should be assigned to work with a Corporal; however, should the need arise, they may be permitted the perform duties independently. This class ranks immediately below that of Police Officer First Class and supervision is received from a superior officer.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

(NOTE: The examples listed below indicate general type of work performed in these positions and are not intended to restrict duties to those listed.)

NOTE: This position is considered the beginning level of general police work and the following examples of work should be performed under the direct supervision of a certified officer.
